A little girl who goes on an important mission. A dark forest, where someone is waiting for rescue. A flame of the Living Fire which can light up the blackest darkness.

Talitha's Mission is a Christian fable about the enormous strength God gives us to struggle with adversities.

God was holding the flame in His hands. (...)

"It's the Living Fire. It is burning, but you won't get burnt by it. I wanted to give it to you."

"Give it? To me? Give me the flame of the Living Fire?" My stammering must have sounded silly, but I was completely flabbergasted.

"Yes. I'd like to ask you to take it to the forest, over there," He pointed at the dark thicket of unknown depth, rising up like a wall at the other side of the meadow. It was so gloomy that it was a place of endless night.

"But... Why am I supposed to go there?"

"Because somebody in this forest really needs this light."
